Dear Licence Holder

Please find attached your Contractor Licence card.

As the holder of a Contractor Licence, you have certain rights and responsibilities.

Your rights as a Contractor Licence holder are:

- You may contract and advertise to carry out work for which the licence has been issued.
- You have access to the Consumer, Trader & Tenancy Tribunal to resolve disputes with licenced contractors, suppliers, manufacturers, and consumers.

Your statutory responsibilities as a Contractor Licence holder are:

- All work where the reasonable market value of the combined labour and material costs exceed $1000 must have a written contract.
- All contracts must show the names of the contractor and the consumer and must include the licence holder's name, licence number, contract price, plans and specifications (where applicable) and relevant warranties required by the Home Building Act 1989. Contracts can be purchased from your nearest Fair Trading Centre, and selected Australia Post outlets.
- You are not permitted to request a deposit for more than 5% where the contract price exceeds $20,000 or 10% when the contract price is $20,000 or less.
